

MATA KI CHOWKI

Navratri is considered an important festival in Hinduism and holds a significant place in the cultural and social fabric of India. The festival is celebrated in different ways, but it is primarily dedicated to worshipping the goddess Durga, who is considered the embodiment of divine feminine energy. So to celebrate Navratri, a Mata ki Chowki was conducted in the Sudha Rustagi college of dental sciences on the third Navratra i.e., 24th March, 2023 to grace the blessings of goddesses. A Bhajan Mandali was called to perform Puja and sing Bhajan. Shree Dharamveer Gupta, Honourable Chairman, Mr. Deepak Gupta, Secretary, Dr C. M. Marya, Principal, Dr Vishal Juneja, CEO and guest invitees graced the occasion. Various faculty members, undergraduate and post graduate students gathered to seek blessings from divine. The event was also broadcasted on YouTube making it accessible to a wider audiences. The programme was followed by bhandara for all the guests, faculty, staff and students.

Overall, the event was a delightful celebration where everyone came together to make cherishable memories under the divine grace of Almighty and to promote cultural diversity.
